

Little Bobbie 5c Cigar follows the example of Robert Burns 10c Cigar in everything but size and price. Half as big, therefore a nickel, but the same family traits in both. Made with the same care, of the same full ripe, well-cured tobacco. Not merely light (color alone doesn't count), but made with naturally mild filler as well as wrapper. When you've time to finish your smoke, choose a Robert Burns; when you haven't, don't throw away half of your cigar, but buy the Little Bobbie. Only your pocket book will know the difference. Same dealer sells both.

WAREHOUSES WILL BE USED FOR FAIR

Petersburg Association Will Not Occupy Own Grounds This Year.

Baptists to Hold Big Sunday School Rally on Sunday.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 100 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., September 22.
The exhibits at the fair of the South-side Agricultural Association, to be held in Petersburg on October 27, 28 and 29, will be displayed at the two large tobacco warehouses—the Virginia and Moore's, on Friend Street.
These warehouses are directly opposite each other, and separated only by the width of the street. They will furnish abundant spare room for a large exhibit, and abundant stall room for stock. It was originally intended by the association to purchase about twenty acres of the Country Club grounds, in Dinwiddie county, for a site for the fair, and to improve the site, enclose it and erect all necessary buildings. But time was too short to do all this, and it was decided to hold the fair this year in the warehouses.

The Common Councils agreed to assist in the purchase and improvement of the site by loaning the association from the city sinking fund the sum of $5,000, which will come in approximately next year to enable the association to own its grounds.

The fair will practically be a local institution, embracing the Southside territory, in which great advance in agriculture has been made during the past few years, and judging the inquiries that have been made and the interest shown by the people the exhibit is going to be a great one.

The boys' contest for the best corn and the best yield per acre is going to be an interesting one. The boy farmers are at work this year in large numbers in all the counties. They are not only showing pride in their work, but are striving for the liberal prizes offered. The great peanut and tobacco sections will be fully represented by their best fields, and the Southside counties will show up well in all the products of the farm.

Educational and scientific addresses will be delivered by men of prominence and experience for the benefit of the exhibitors, and these addresses will be an interesting feature of the fair.

The four young white men—Malley Burnett, Earnest Tyas, Charles Warrenton and John Wheelhouse—held on warrants charging them with feloniously entering and robbing freight cars of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, were brought into the Police Court this morning for preliminary hearing, but at the request of counsel their cases were laid over until next Wednesday. The young men have engaged able counsel to defend them.

The property alleged to have been stolen, and some of it recovered, were boxes of candies, cakes and chipped beef.

The police have pretty well cleared up the mystery of the robbery of a Norfolk and Western car at Wilson's Station in August last, have recovered a large portion of the stolen goods, which were brought to this city, and expect soon to make arrests.

Baptist Sunday School Rally.
The fall rally of the Sunday schools connected with the Baptist Sunday School Association of this city and vicinity will be held in the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. An interesting program of music, recitations, etc., has been arranged for the occasion, and an address will be delivered by the Rev. F. R. Chenault, of Washington Street M. E. Church.

Southern Commercial Congress.
Hatcher S. Seward will be the Petersburg representative at the meeting of the Southern Commercial Congress, to be held in Atlanta on October 7. Secretary E. L. Quarles, of the congress, reports that in proportion to its population Petersburg is ahead of all other Southern cities in financial support of the organization.

M. Leonard, in Ettrick. She retired

CHANGES COLOR OF HAIR.
Alleged Forger Uses Peroxide in Effort to Escape Identification.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., September 22.—When the case of Hermann Silvers, indicted for forgery on five counts, was called in the Corporation Court here to-day, the defendant was led from jail to the prisoners' bench, but his closest friends failed to recognize him. Up to two weeks ago Silvers, who is eighteen years old, had a fine head of black hair and wore a pompadour. When he came into court to-day he had golden locks, which were parted in the middle and plastered down close. Silvers in some way got hold of a bottle of peroxide and dyed his hair into growth a bright yellow. He resorted to this means to keep witnesses from identifying him as the alleged forger, but others who knew him well discovered the deception.
